Dear Bryan

I received first hand experience of your excellent service when I recently lost the master keys for our premises.

Within hours of my losing the keys (before I realised I had lost them), a phone call had been made to the security officer for our company to inform him that the keys had been found and handed in.

I was promptly contacted and made arrangements for the immediate return of the keys. I couldn't ask for a better service and would be happy to act as a referee for anyone wishing to use your service.

Yours faithfully
